

DIPLOMATIC TREATY

KINGDOM OF UNITED COUNTIES & REPUBLIC OF SALDABRIA

Preamble:

This treaty of diplomatic relations between the Kingdom of united counties and the Republic of Saldabria states that both states undertake to comply with the following obligations and to give permission to the following, stipulated in the articles of this treaty:

Article 1

Both micronations shall have the right to open and control, according to the laws of both countries, an embassy in the other nation, be it digital or physical, and assign an ambassador, which must be identified to the government of the country where it is installed, according to the laws of both countries.

Article 2

The signatory nations of this treaty undertake to help each other economically according to a future treaty. They also commit to help maintain the legitimate regime established at the moment by the current heads of states - this help includes military acts; however, if one of the countries should act in the other to comply with this article, this would only do so if the head of state of this one explicitly requests it. They also commit to help protect their borders in case of invasion.

Article 3

Both nations commit themselves to solve the problems that they can have through diplomatic channels and without recourse to military attacks or cyber attacks.

Article 4

The signatory nations commit themselves to be available and to maintain contact between them.

Article 5

Both nations are committed to maintaining free trade in exported to the other will not pay any type of border tariff for part of none of the countries.

Article 6

Free movement of persons and borders shall be maintained open between the two countries. This article will be deferrable for a maximum of two times in a row for a maximum of two years, each one of them, however, it must be agreed between the affected nations and a margin of two years must be left to repeal it.

Article 7

In order to maintain security in both countries, will commit to share any information about crimes and criminals among them.

Article 8

If any person from one of the nations commits a crime punishable by imprisonment (or capital punishment) in the other country, it must be repatriated to be tried in his country of origin. You will be exempt if you agrees between the governments of the two countries or if the offender has the nationality of the nation where he has committed the illegal act.

Article 9

In order to demonstrate compliance with the rights of people to be informed of the rules that govern them, both nations will commit to publish this treaty on both websites.

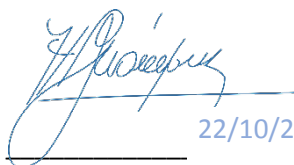

Article 10

The nations agree not to spy on each other of any of the forms will not, for any reason, solve the problems according to article 3 and without the use of espionage.

Article 11

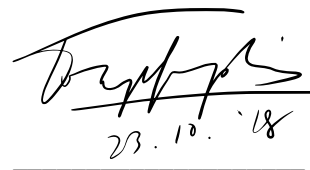

In signing this treaty, nations commit themselves to recognize each other: their right to independence, its sovereignty, its right to exist, its territory and territorial extension, provided it does not invade that of one of the parties.

Signatures:

22/10/2018

President of the Republic of Saldabria

23.10.18

Prime Minister of Kingdom of United Counties

It is recommended to sign this treaty in digital format, with an image of the signature, which may contain a date to avoid fakes. The digital and image signature is legal in this treaty.